

Public Call

FOR PROPOSALS TO REFORM THE LAW ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE IN SRI LANKA

The NCW invites the public to submit their proposals / recommendations on or before April 31st, 2017 as individuals or civil society organizations or as any interested party towards improving the scheme of legal protection for domestic violence in Sri Lanka, particularly the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act No.34 of 2005, The following categories maybe used to guide submissions.

-
1. IMPROVING SERVICES REQUIRED BY COMPLAINANTS
 2. IMPROVING EXPERIENCE OF COMPLAINANTS IN POLICE STATIONS
 3. IMPROVING EXPERIENCE OF COMPLAINANTS IN COURT & ACCESS TO JUSTICE
 4. IMPROVING THE SYSTEM OF MONITORING PROTECTION ORDERS
 5. PREVENTION PROGRAMS BY THE STATE
-

Submissions may be forwarded in Sinhala, Tamil or English in any of the following ways:

By emailing or posting to the following address:

Chairperson, PDVA Amendment Committee,
National Committee on Women
5th Floor, "Sethsiripaya", 2nd Stage,
Battaramulla.

Email: secncwsl@gmail.com